Great-West Life, London Life and Canada Life launch two new segregated fund series

Winnipeg, MB, July 23, 2018. . . Great-West Life, London Life and Canada Life today announced the launch of two new fee-based, segregated fund series, Partner series and Preferred Partner series, in response to advisor and client demand.

“Our organization is making investments and introducing solutions that ensure we stay relevant to the needs of the Canadian consumers,” said Sam Sivarajan, Senior Vice-President, Wealth Solutions, Great-West Life, London Life and Canada Life. “These new fee-based series are being introduced in response to demand from our clients and advisors and reflect our continued commitment to improving the financial well-being of Canadians and to put our customers at the centre of everything we do.”

The Partner series will be available to retail investors, while the Preferred Partner series will be available to customers with assets over $500,000.

Great-West Life, London Life and Canada Life also announced fee reductions for customers with over $100,000 in assets across several of their segregated funds, including Standard series, Partner series, Preferred series 1 and Preferred Partner series.
